M.A. Pali (Two year)

General Instructions about the Program, the Pattern of Examination and the Syllabus

I. General Instructions

I.1 General Structure: M.A. Pali is a four-semester program offered by the Department of Pali and Buddhist Studies, Savitribai Phule Pune University. It contains eighty-eight credits i.e. twenty-two credits per semester plus extra credits as prescribed by the university. The program is to be completed within two years. It contains twenty-three courses of two, four or six credits. All the elective courses are also available for students doing any Master degree program in the university.

The Postgraduate M.A. is a fulltime program. It is divided into two parts: M.A. Part I (consisting of two semesters: Semester I and Semester II) and M.A. Part II (consisting of two semesters: Semester III and Semester IV).

There are fifteen Discipline Specific Courses (DSC/major), four Major Elective Courses (ME), one Research Methodology (RM), two Research Projects (RP), and one On Job Training (OJT). In order to promote research aptitude and to inculcate relevant research skills among the students, the course includes research training and academic writing in the form of research article, book review, preparation of bibliography, and short dissertation/translation project in the first, third and fourth semesters.

The program will be conducted in the form of lectures, seminars, tutorials, practical, group discussions, internship, apprenticeship, and research project. Teaching of semesters, I and II will be sequential and also that of semesters III and IV. Syllabus of each course will be discussed in fifteen clock hours per credit during each semester.

Students' understanding will be assessed on the basis of their performance on things, such as assignments, debate on conceptual issues, group discussion, essay writing, seminar presentation, tutorial writing, written and oral examination, practical, viva etc.

Students are expected to maintain at least 75% attendance and to ensure their active participation in the class.

I.2 Introduction: The M.A. Pali program offers a deeper level understanding of the Buddhist literature available in Pali. It provides an opportunity to students to specialize in subjects such as Vinaya, Abhidhamma, Vyākaraṇa, Socially Engaged Buddhism, Buddhist Psychology, and Buddhist Art, Architecture and Epigraphy. It also introduces students to two other classical languages of Buddhism, namely, Sanskrit and Tibetan. It gives students necessary training in research methodology and helps them carry out path breaking research in the area of study. The syllabus of the program is designed in such a way that it gives holistic understanding of Pali literature along with two classical languages of Buddhism necessary for carrying out comparative research. The program aims at providing a solid foundation in Pali literature, based on which students can pursue serious research in the field. It also prepares students for a bright academic career by enhancing their knowledge of the subject and research capacity. Students completing this program together with a number of specializations and allied languages mentioned above would have career openings in different fields, and could do path breaking work by connecting Buddhist literature with a number of other disciplines.

I.3 Objectives: The objectives of the M.A. Pali are:

- To provide thorough understanding of Pali language and literature with the help of extensive textual study of different genres
- To help students acquire foundational skills in Sanskrit and Tibetan with the purpose of encouraging comparative study
- To enable students to explore the vast field of Pali studies covering various specializations such as Vinaya, Abhidhamma, Vyākaraṇa, Socially Engaged Buddhism, Buddhist Psychology, and Buddhist Art, Architecture and Epigraphy
- To train students in research methodology related to Buddhist Studies
- To encourage students to carry out fundamental research in the field of Pali studies
- To inspire students to find out relevance of the ancient Buddhist wisdom in the modern world having multiple challenges

I.4 Eligibility:

- B.A. in Pali/Buddhist Studies/Sanskrit as a special or general subject
- Or, Graduate of any faculty with Foundation Course in Pali/Buddhist Studies or its equivalent

I.5 Duration: The duration of the M.A. Pali will be two academic years consisting of four semesters of fifteen weeks each.

I.6 Program Fee: The Registration fee, the Admission Fee for the program, the Tuition Fee for all the four semesters, Examination Fee, Record Fee, Statement of Marks, and other essential fees will be as per the rules and regulations of the Savitribai Phule Pune University.

I.7. Teaching:

- Medium of instruction – English/Marathi
- Lectures - One lecture hour/two practical hours per credit per week for fifteen weeks in a semester, i.e. there will be fifteen hours of teaching and thirty hours of practical per credit, which is equal to 25 mark

II. Pattern of Examination

II.1 Assessment and Evaluation:

- An M.A. student will be assessed for his/her performance at a written test of 2200 marks.
- For each semester there will be an external examination for 50% marks and an internal examination for 50% marks per course.
- The external examination will be held at the end of each semester.
- The internal assessment will be carried out throughout the semester.
- The nature of the internal assessment is varied. It will include at least three components out of written test, essay writing, group discussion, seminar presentation, tutorial writing, debate on conceptual issues, and oral and practical exam.

II.2 Passing:

- To pass the M.A. examination a candidate must obtain 40% of the total marks in each of the external and internal examination i.e., separate passing e.g. 20 out of 50 in external and 20 out of 50 in internal examination
- Or, aggregate 40% marks with at least 30% marks in either external or internal examination e.g. 15 marks out of 50
- Those of the successful candidates will be given appropriate grades in accordance with the grading pattern accepted by the university

II.3 Question Pattern:

- External written examination (50% marks e.g. 50 out of 100): Long answer, short answer, short note, translation, reference to context, etc.
- Internal examination (50% marks e.g. 50 out of 100): At least three components out of written test, essay writing, group discussion, seminar presentation, tutorial writing, debate on conceptual issues, open book test, oral and practical exam, etc.

H. Buddhism and Western Philosophy

[Objective: To introduce the doctrines and discussions in the western philosophy on some important issues common to Buddhism. The student is not supposed to do comparison between Buddhism and western philosophy as a part of this course, but to enrich the understanding of Buddhism in a broader framework. The course consists of four credits. Under each credit first the broad theme and the western theories and philosophers are mentioned. It is followed by a square bracket in which the relevant Buddhist philosophers, their doctrines and concepts are mentioned.]

Credit 1: What is Philosophy - Love of wisdom, rational inquiry, logic as the essence; rhetoric, philosophical analysis [Prajñā, Pramāṇa, Prameya, and Puruṣārtha; theory of Vāda, Nītārtha-Neyārtha]; Nature of Reality: Permanence and impermanence - Parmenides, Heraclitus [Sautrāntika; Dharmakīrti]; Structure of Reality: Realism and Idealism - Plato, Aristotle, Berkeley, David Hume [Sarvāstivāda (classification of Dharmas as Skandha, Āyatana, and Dhātu), Vijñaptimātratā]

Credit 2: Universals - Plato, Aristotle, Wittgenstein (Realism, Conceptualism, Nominalism) [Dinnāga, Dharmakīrti, Nāgārjuna]; Causation - Aristotle, Hume, Kant, Bergson [Pratītyasamutpāda: Its Theravāda and Mādhyamika interpretation; the doctrine of four pratyayas]

Credit 3: Soul-Mind-Body - Plato, Descartes, Hume, Gilbert Ryle [Anattā, the doctrine of Pañcaskandhas, Pudgalavāda, Vijñānavāda]; epistemology: Empiricism and Rationalism; synthetic-analytic - Descartes, Locke, Hume, Kant [Pratyakṣa and Anumāna in Dharmakīrti's epistemology]

Credit 4: Ethics: Egoistic, altruistic, and universalistic; Hedonism - Aristotle, Hobbes, Kant and J. S. Mill ["Bahujanahitāya, Bahujanasukhāya..."], the concept of Middle Path, Arhat and Bodhisattva ideal]; recent trends: Phenomenology (Husserl), Deconstruction (Derrida), Post-modernism (Lyotard) [Vijñānavāda (Vasubandhu), Śūnyatā (Nāgārjuna), Kṣaṇikatā (Dharmakīrti)]
