Information

The Competitive Examinations Centre, Savitribai Phule Pune University has been providing effective support to the aspirants for UPSC and MPSC Civil Services career. Since its inception in 1970 the Centre has been instrumental in instilling confidence among the Maharashtraian youth, contributing to the Competitive culture on the Pune University campus and in Pune and helping the civil services aspirants in terms of preparation, study material, expert guidance and many other activities necessary for success at such Competitive Examinations. The Centre has grown in strength. A steady rise of its success at the National and State level Competitive Exams is a testimony to the quality of programmes conducted at the Centre. In the last three years a total of about 160 students of the centre have been successful at various competitive exams and joined their services. These include, UPSC Civil Services, MPSC class I and II as well as Class III services, Banking, LIC, Water Resource Dept. Agriculture, State Intelligence.

The Competitive Examinations Centre has an excellent library and a reading hall (Air conditioned), a computer lab for the academic use for its students and above all a Competitive environment. The Savitribai Phule Pune University provides excellent infrastructure facilities to the Competitive Examinations Centre for all its activities. A team of well experienced and focused faculty from theSavitribai Phule Pune University Departments and colleges are engaged in the programmes of the Centre. Experts from outside the Academia, such as Civil Servants (retired and serving), experts from the different fields and those engaged in similar training activities are associated with the Competitive Examinations Centre programmes.

The Competitive Examinations Centre conducts short term and long-term courses or programme for UPSC and MPSC Civil Services Examinations. The Centre will conduct “one academic year full time” course March, 2015 to January, 2016. These courses are meant for UPSC (Civil Services) & MPSC Prelims and Mains examinations 2015.
