Sub: Celebration of Gandhi Week in October 2012
UN declared 2nd Oct as an 'INTERNATIONAL NON-VIOLENCE DAY'

SUGGESTED PROGRAMMES for the Colleges

Greetings.

We heartily thank you for accepting our suggestions of 2nd October programmes last year and sending letters to all NSS Co-ordinators to commemorate International Non-Violence Day vide your letter dt. 06.09.2012. We got a very good response from various Educational Institutions and Universities all over India. Last year, Students and teachers from various colleges participated enthusiastically in these celebrations. About six lakh students participated in these programmes.

History and Growth of NSS is based on the idea of involving students in the task of national service dates back to the times of Mahatma Gandhi, the father of the nation. Govt. of India started the NSS in 1969, the birth century of Mahatma Gandhi.

Never before there has been so much need of Gandhi's Non-violence in society. In past also, many great leaders have followed on Gandhi's footsteps of Non-violence to lead a successful movement. Gandhiji has been the source of inspiration for the leaders like Martin Luther King, Nelson Mandela to use Non-violence, as a tool to fight against injustice and corruption. This is a proof that Gandhi's principles of Non-violence and people power are relevant and useful, irrespective of the time and age.

Enclosed are the series of activities planned to commemorate the International Non-Violence Day in colleges. We will appreciate, if you could write a similar letter as per last year to all the NSS Programme Co-ordinators, and all the departments concerned, regarding the involvement of the Student's community in the programmes to be organized to commemorate the International Non-Violence Day.

We are positive that the programme will be complementary to other youth activities. We look to joining hands with you for the creation of peaceful world for future generations.

We will appreciate if you send us the copy of the letter sent to all above institutions and inform us about the programmes you have planned during 2nd October – Nonviolence Week.

With warm regards, peace and love,

TRK Somaiya

UN declared 2nd October as an 'INTERNATIONAL NON-VIOLENCE DAY' in 2007

SUGGESTED PROGRAMMES for Colleges / Gandhi Study Centres

INTRODUCTION

The United Nations General Assembly declared 2nd October (Gandhi Jayanti) as an 'International Day of Non-Violence' in 2007. It is a real tribute to the apostle of Peace. The day is meant to raise awareness of non-violence, tolerance, full respect for all human rights and fundamental freedoms for all, democracy, development, mutual understanding and respect of diversity through education and public awareness.

Never before has there been so much speculation about the future of this world as it is in today's violent times. Youth today is indiscriminately bombarded with negative emotions of selfishness, hatred, vengeance and violence through T.V, films, mobile phones and video games. As a result, news of children taking to violence at the slightest disagreements or conflicts appears more frequently in newspapers. Therefore, Value Education has become the need of the hour to sustain morality and peaceful conflict resolution.

Gandhiji has been a source of inspiration for international personalities like Martin Luther King (Jr.), Nelson Mandela, just as innumerable other common men and women who look towards the life and teachings of Gandhi for moral inspiration.
