Information

Introduction:

The Competitive Examinations Centre, University of Pune has been providing effective support to the aspirants for UPSC and MPSC Civil Services career. Since its inception in 1970 the Centre has been instrumental in instilling confidence among the Maharashtrian youth, contributing to the Competitive culture on the Pune University campus and in Pune and helping the civil services aspirants in terms of preparation, study material, expert guidance and many other activities necessary for success at such Competitive Examinations. The Centre has grown in strength. A steady rise of its success at the National and State level Competitive Exams is a testimony to the quality of programmes conducted at the Centre. In the last three years a total of about 60 students of the centres have been successful at various competitive exams and joined their services. These include, UPSC Civil Services, MPSC class I and II as well as Class III services, Banking, LIC, Water Resource Dept. Agriculture, State Intelligence.

The Competitive Examinations Centre has an excellent library and a reading hall (Air conditioned), a computer lab for the academic use for its students and above all a Competitive environment. The University of Pune provides excellent infrastructure facilities to the Competitive Examinations Centre for all its activities. A team of well experienced and focused faculty from the Pune University departments and colleges are engaged in the programmes of the Centre. Experts from outside the Academia, such as Civil Servants (retired and serving), experts from the different fields and those engaged in similar training activities are associated with the Competitive Examinations Centre programmes.

The Competitive Examinations Centre conducts short term and long-term courses or programme for UPSC and MPSC Civil Services Examinations. The Centre will conduct two “one-year full-time” courses from December to September. These courses are meant for UPSC (Civil Services) and MPSC Prelims & Main examinations of 2011. The courses will cover all components of General Study subjects and selected optional subjects namely History, Political Science, Public Administration and Geography. Training/coaching for the other optional subjects will be provided, if there are minimum of five students opting for a subject and teachers in that subject are available. Limited hostel seats are available to the outstation students for both gents and ladies. The last date to apply for the courses is 21/12/2010 and the Entrance Test is scheduled on 26/12/2010.
